Type of Incident	Freedom Convoy
Location	Ottawa
Incident Date and Time	28/01/2022 13:29

Brief Synopsis

Approx 30 people on Parliament Hill but with dissipating crowds in the downtown core. We had several different protest groups gathering and marching to the Hill without incident.

The road closures remain in effect with increased vehicle traffic and congestion in the core.

There continue to be flashpoints at various intersections, with one a long standing one at SJAM and Booth. There was also one incident with a truck running a barricade on the Mackenzie Bridge. There was no damage and the vehicle driver stopped, attempting to engage officers. Officers maintained professionalism and de-escalated as crowds were growing.

PLT continue to engage the primary organizers to identify intentions and possible exit strategies. They have further identified to the organizers the rising concerns from local citizens with respect to public safety. Discussions will be continuing tomorrow.

SSC is engaging with NCRCC and other partners to set up contingency plans for staffing and support. OPP have engaged uniformed members from outlying detachments to provide continued support and relief for our deployed members.
